1. During the period from 21 to 30 September 1952, the barracks installations in Naumburg post (M 52/J 89) were occupied by rear details only. The German craftsmen had completed reconditioning work on the installations by 30 September. On 26 September, troops, mostly wearing red-bordered black epaulets but some with black-bordered crimson epaulets, billeting equipment, sedan [redacted] truck [redacted] and jeeps [redacted] were unloaded from 2 flatcars with sideracks and 4 boxcars at the Ostbahnhof. [redacted] the unit, which subsequently went to the Hindenburg Kaserne on Schenburger Strasse, was an advance detail. *

2. On 1 October, at 11 a.m., a train with 20 officers, 300 to 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia, 4 x 85-mm AA guns, 1 x 37-mm AA guns and 46 trucks [redacted]

[redacted] stood at the Ostbahnhof. The train was unloaded by 4 p.m., and the troops marched to the Bismarck Kaserne on Leisnadelser Strasse. Another train unloaded there between 6:30 p.m. until 12 a.m. included 30 to 40 officers, about 500 EM most of whom wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia but some wore motor transport insignia, 20 uniformed men wearing red-bordered black epaulets, 12 x 85-mm AA guns, 4 x 37-mm AA guns and 31 trucks [redacted]

The troops subsequently marched to the Bismarck Kaserne. The fence previously separating the Bismarck Kaserne from the former Heereszeugamt was removed. Motor vehicles and ammunition of the unit were stored there. ** All quarters were lighted in the evening of 2 October. During the period from 21 to 30 September, billeting equipment, motor vehicle spare parts, boxes and lumber from the Bismarck Kaserne was piled up at the Ostbahnhof. The materiel was brought to the station on seven trucks [redacted]

[redacted] with soldiers wearing black-bordered black epaulets and red-bordered black epaulets, 2 lieutenant colonels and 1 major who arrived in jeep [redacted] On 2 October, this materiel, billeting equipment, ammunition, motor vehicle spare parts and other materiel which was brought from Bad Koesen on trucks [redacted]

[redacted] were loaded. Three T-34/85 tanks from Bad Koesen were also loaded. One lieutenant colonel, 1 major, 5 captains, junior officers and EM wearing black-bordered black epaulets

* Comment. The arrival of an advance party of the 57th Gds Mtz Rifle Div in the Hindenburg Kaserne was previously reported.

** Comment. The information indicates that troops returning to their training post from the Kindel troop training grounds on 1 and 3 October included shipments of corps troops of the XXIX Gds Mtz Rifle Corps and artillery troops and infantry units of the 57th Gds Mtz Rifle Div. In detail, the following was observed: Bismarck Kaserne: 2 battalions of the 198th AAA Regt of the XXIX Gds Mtz Rifle Corps with a total of 16 x 85-mm and 8 x 37-mm AA guns. The second shipment on 1 October was previously reported.

50X1-HUM

Bluecher Kaserne: elements of the 655th How Arty Regt of the 57th Gds Mtz Rifle Div with 8 x 122-mm field howitzers and 8 x 160-mm mortars; a workshop unit

Hubertus Kaserne: the bulk of the 170th Gds Mtz Rifle Regt of the 57th Gds Mtz Rifle Div.

Barbara Kaserne: 1 advance party of the 27th Gds Sig Bn of the XXIX Gds Mtz Rifle Corps.
